

Welcome

Visit as a Guest

Welcome to Liberty Lakers Toastmasters Club of Liberty Lake, Washington. We meet at 5:45 pm PDT., the 1st and 3rd Wednesday's of the month.

Currently we are meeting online only.

The Liberty Laker's Club, #399 is a part of Toastmasters International.

We would like to invite you to join us to check out a meeting! Our group is lively, and we have people from all different ages, and walks of life.

Toastmasters members often get so much more from being Club members than improving upon public speaking and leadership.

Most will say, "There's always something new to learn," or "I enjoy the comraderie with my friends in the Club," or "I am improving my skills everyday."

People come to Toastmasters for a variety of reasons:

- Improve public speaking skills
- To become a better leader
- For career advancement
- To have fun and meet people
- To network and make connections
- Add your reason here!

We look forward to having you join us in an upcoming meeting. We look forward to meeting in-person again when available. But, the good news is that no matter where you live, you can join our Liberty Laker's Toastmasters meeting!

Contact our executive team at libertylakers399@gmail.com to join a meeting.

The proven way to help you speak and lead.

Congratulations — you're on your way to becoming a better

Through its worldwide network of clubs, Toastmasters International helps people communicate effectively and achieve the confidence to lead others. Why pay thousands of dollars for a seminar or class when you can join a Toastmasters club for a fraction of the cost and have fun in the process?

What's in it for you?

Toastmasters is a place where you develop and grow – both personally and professionally. You join a community of learners, and in Toastmasters meetings we learn by doing. Whether you're an executive or a stay-at-home parent, a college student or a retiree, you will improve yourself; building skills to express yourself in a variety of situations. You'll open up a world of new possibilities: giving better work presentations; leading meetings – and participating in them – more confidently; speaking more smoothly off the cuff; even handling one-on-one interactions with family, friends and colleagues more positively.

How does it work?

The environment in a Toastmasters club is friendly and supportive. Everyone at a Toastmasters meeting in Glasgow feels welcome

Constructive evaluation is central to the Toastmasters philosophy. Each time you give a prepared speech, an evaluator will point out strengths as well as suggest improvements. Receiving – and giving – such feedback is a great learning experience. In Toastmasters, encouragement and improvement go hand-in-hand.

Good leaders are good communicators

Anyone who is a strong leader has to first be an effective communicator. In Toastmasters you will hone your speaking skills, and you will develop leadership abilities – through evaluations, listening, mentoring, serving as club officers and filling roles in club meetings. You will take those leadership skills out into the world, running businesses, mentoring youths, organizing fund-raisers, coaching teams and heading up families.
